Employee's Instructions

Arizona law requires your employer to withhold Arizona income tax from your wages for work done in Arizona. The amount withheld is applied to your Arizona income tax due when you file your tax return. The amount withheld is a percentage of your gross taxable wages from every paycheck. You may also have your employer withhold an extra amount from each paycheck. Complete this form to select a percentage and any extra amount to be withheld from each paycheck.

What are my "Gross Taxable Wages"?

For withholding purposes, your "gross taxable wages" are the wages that will generally be in box 1 of your federal Form W-2. It is your gross wages less any pretax deductions, such as your share of health insurance premiums.

New Employees

Complete this form within the first five days of your employment to select an Arizona withholding percentage. You may also have your employer withhold an extra amount from each paycheck. If you do not give this form to your employer the department requires your employer to withhold 2.0% of your gross taxable wages.

Current Employees

If you want to change your current amount withheld, you must file this form to change the Arizona withholding percentage or to change the extra amount withheld.

What Should I do With Form A-4?

Give your completed Form A-4 to your employer.

Electing a Withholding Percentage of Zero

You may elect an Arizona withholding percentage of zero if you expect to have no Arizona income tax liability for the current year. Arizona tax liability is gross tax liability less any tax credits, such as the family tax credit, school tax credits, or credits for taxes paid to other states. If you make this election, your employer will not withhold Arizona income tax from your wages for payroll periods beginning after the date you file the form. To keep this election for the next calendar year, you must give your employer an updated Form A-4. If you do not, your employer may withhold Arizona income tax from your wages and salary until you submit an updated Form A-4.

Zero withholding does not relieve you from paying Arizona income taxes that might be due at the time you file your Arizona income tax return. If you have an Arizona tax liability when you file your return or if at any time during the current year conditions change so that you expect to have a tax liability, you should promptly file a new Form A-4 and choose a withholding percentage that applies to you.

Voluntary Withholding Election by Certain Nonresident Employees

Compensation earned by nonresidents while physically working in Arizona for temporary periods is subject to Arizona income tax. However, under Arizona law, compensation paid to certain nonresident employees is not subject to Arizona income tax withholding. These nonresident employees need to review their situations and determine if they should elect to have Arizona income taxes withheld from their Arizona source compensation. Nonresident employees may request that their employer withhold Arizona income taxes by completing this form to elect Arizona income tax withholding.

Arizona employers are required to make Arizona Form A-4 available to employees at all times and to inform them of Arizona's withholding election options.

Arizona income tax withholding is a percentage of gross taxable wages. "Gross taxable wages" is the amount that meets the federal definition of "wages." Generally, it is the amount included in box 1 of the employee's federal Form W-2 at the end of the calendar year.

Employees elect the percentage of their gross taxable wages they wish to be withheld. They may also elect to have an extra amount withheld from each paycheck.

NOTE: Arizona tax rates are lower. As a result, the department revised the withholding percentages and is requiring all individuals to complete a new Form A-4 for 2023.

COMPLETING ARIZONA FORM A-4

- All employees are required to complete Form A-4.
- New employees must complete Form A-4 within 5 days of employment. If the employee fails to complete the form, the employer must withhold Arizona income tax at the default rate, 2.0% of the employee's wages until the employer receives a completed Form A-4 from that employee.
- Current employees must complete an updated Form A-4 to elect a different Arizona withholding percentage or to change any extra amount to be withheld from his/her paycheck.
- An employee may elect an Arizona withholding percentage of zero if that employee expects to have no Arizona income tax liability for the current taxable year.
 - o If an employee makes this election, his/her employer will not withhold Arizona tax from his/her paycheck for all payroll periods beginning after the date of the employee's election.
 - o Each employee claiming to be exempt from Arizona withholding must renew this election annually. Each employee who wishes to keep this election in the next taxable year must complete and provide to his/her employer a new Form A-4 by February 15th of the following year. If the employee fails to provide an updated Form A-4 by February 15th, the employer will withhold Arizona income tax at the default rate, 2.0% until the employee provides the employer with an updated Form A-4.

- A qualifying nonresident employee may use Form A-4 to elect to have a percentage of his/her wages withheld to be applied to his/her Arizona income tax liability.

EMPLOYMENT REQUIRING WITHHOLDING

Withholding tax shall be deducted from the compensation of:

- Wages paid to an Arizona resident whose compensation is for services performed within this state.
- Wages paid to a nonresident employee who is in this state solely for athletic or entertainment purposes.
- Wages paid to part-time or seasonal agricultural employees whose principal duties are operating any mechanically-driven device in such operations.
- Wages paid to a non-resident who is in this state for 60 or more days in a calendar year for the purpose of performing a service that will benefit the employer or a related entity.

EMPLOYMENT FOR WHICH WITHHOLDING MAY BE ELECTED

- A nonresident Arizona employee in this state for less than 60 days may elect to have Arizona withholding amounts subtracted from his/her paycheck and the employer must withhold tax based on the employee's election to do so.
- An out of state business may elect to withhold tax from the nonresident employee before the 60 day limitation has elapsed.

EMPLOYMENT EXCLUDED FROM WITHHOLDING

NOTE: An employee exempted from withholding tax may not be exempted from paying Arizona income tax.

No withholding amount shall be deducted from:

- Wages paid to an employee of a common carrier when that employee is a nonresident of Arizona and regularly performs services inside and outside the state.
- Wages paid for domestic service in a private home.
- Wages paid for casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business.
- Wages paid for part-time or seasonal agricultural labor whose services to the employer consist solely of labor in connection with the planting, cultivating, harvesting or field packing of seasonal agricultural crops.
- Wages paid to a nonresident of Arizona who is solely in this state on a temporary basis for the purpose of performing disaster recovery from a declared disaster during a disaster period.
- Wages paid to a nonresident of Arizona engaged in any phase of motion picture production, if the employer applies for an exemption from the withholding provisions, and the department determines that the nonresident would be allowed a credit for taxes paid to his/her state of residency or domicile.

- Wages paid to a nonresident of Arizona who is:
 - o An employee of an individual, fiduciary, partnership, corporation, or limited liability company having property, payroll and sales in this state, or of a related entity having more than fifty percent direct or indirect common ownership.
 - o Physically present in this state for less than sixty (60) days in a calendar year for the purpose of performing a service that will benefit the employer or the related entity. For purposes of determining the number of days of service in this state, days spent in the following activities are not included:
 - In transit
 - Engaging in personal activities
 - Participating in training or professional development activities or attending meetings that are not directly connected to the Arizona operations of the employer or related entity.

A “related entity having more than 50 percent direct or indirect common ownership” means that the related entities are more than 50 percent owned by the same interests. The following examples demonstrate three different situations in which the nonresident employee performs services in Arizona for less than 60 days during the calendar year.

Example 1:

Corporation A is the U.S. domestic parent of Corporation B, a wholly owned foreign subsidiary corporation. Corporation A has property, payroll and sales in Arizona. Corporation B operates in China. It has no Arizona property, payroll and sales. R is an employee of B and is not a resident of Arizona. R performs services for B in Arizona for 45 days during calendar year 2023.

Example 2:

Corporation F, based in California, is the common parent of Corporation W. Corporation F does not have property, payroll and sales in Arizona. Corporation W has property, payroll, and sales in Arizona. L is an employee of F and is not an Arizona resident. L performs services for F in Arizona for 55 days during calendar year 2023.

Example 3:

D owns 60 percent of Corporation K and 51 percent of Corporation S. N owns 40 percent of Corporation K and 49 percent of Corporation S. Corporation S has property, payroll and sales in Arizona. Corporation K is based in California and has no Arizona property, payroll, and sales. T is an employee of K and is not a resident of Arizona. T performs services for K in Arizona for 35 days during calendar year 2023.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse
Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

- (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or
- (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or
- (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate ☐

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____ Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2024 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2023 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2024. You had no federal income tax liability in 2023 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2023 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2024 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2025.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
3. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2024 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4.
